Concerts, Recitals and Notes of Music Events

duced to New York in the past season. Bakst. The scenery for "Sadko" and The repertory of the Grand Opera and the Opera Comique of Parisemight be searched with advantage. But The searched with advantage. But The Sun's reviewer has no expectation of formance will be the presentation of Sun's reviewer has no expectation that any such thing will happen. The controlling tastes at the Metropolitan Opera House are not inclined toward Gallic art. Yet it is not impossible that the growing favor of "Samson et Dalila" may be an argument for a change of heart. change of heart. Other ballets of the week will be as

Some new singers have appeared at Some new singers have appeared at the opera in the recent season. No one of them was of the first rank, but lell de Nuit" and "Carnaval." in this time of low standards they compared well with others and were repared well with others and were received with much approval by a pub-lic whose taste has been insidiously undermined, How much better than Elvira de Hidalgo is Mme. Barrientos? Senorita de Hidalgo was not taken seriously. Mme. Barrientos is Edith Mason has proved to be serviceable second seprano, and al-though she has been cast for roles formerly confided only to stars, she has acquitted herself with credit and in Micacla even with some small distinction. As for Miss Cajatti and Miss Sarska, the present writer confesses that he is still lost in amazement at beholding such people assuming principal roles on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House. Better CONCERTS, RECITALS, NOTES OF singers were coldly received in the Century Opera Company.

Wednesday afternoons and Saturday evenings. No performances will be given on Tuesday evenings.

Since leaving the Century Theatre Mr. Diaghi eff and his famous organization have been on tour during the past nine weeks and they have appeared in Boston, Albany, Detroit, Chisago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Washington, Philadelphia and Atlantic A number of new ballets will be pro duced by Mr. Diaghileff during the engagement of the Ballet Russe at the Metropolitan Opera House. The list of novelties will include the first performance on any stage of "Sadko," a fantastic poem in one act with music by Rimsky-Korsakof.

In the list of new works will also be "Papillons," a romantic poem in one scene based on the music of the same Metropolitan Opera House is impov- vitation a la Valse": "Narcisse," a Metropolitan Opera House is impoverished and that no wise efforts appear to be made to enrich it. To say that there are no good operas to be had is like the old story that there were no acceptable singers, a story disproved so often that it is no longer repeated. There are no new operas which can be called great works of art, but the operagoing audiences do not demand such works.

There should be many operas far better than the two which were introduced to New York in the past season.

Witation a la Valse": "Narcisse," a mythological poem in one act with music by Tcherepnine; "Tpamar," a drama in one scene after a poem by Lermontof with music by Balakiref; "Daphnis et Chloe," a pastoral poem in three scenes with music by Maurice Ravel, and "Cleopatre," a choreographic drama in one act with music by Arensky. With the exception of "Sadko" and "Le Spectre de la Rose" the scenery and costumes for all these works have been designed by Leon Bakst. The scenery for "Sadko" and

Thursday evenein, "Cleopatre," "Petrouchka," "Spectre de la Rose," "So-leil de Nuit."

Friday evening, "L'Oiseau de Feu." "Carnaval," "Scheherazade."
Saturday matinee, "Cleopatre," "Les Sylphides." "L'Apres Midi d'un

Faune," "Prince Igor Dances."
Saturday evening, "Scheherasade," "Petrouchka," "Spectre de la Rose," "Soliel de Nuit." For the engagement of the Ballet Russe at the Metropolitan Opers. House there will be an orchestra of MUSIC.

Mr. de Luca, a competent barytone, was introduced in the past season and should continue in the compnay. He is interesting in most of his roles, and in some, such as Rigoletto, discloses clearly marked personality and an individuality of style.

Jubilee Year is the New York Philharmonic Society's announcement for next season, the seventy-fifth anniversary of the foundation of the society. The event itself will be celebrated by a five days festival, which will include performances in each of the foundation.

slav races (southern Slav races) will be given at the French Theatre this evening under the auspices of the Chicago Club, Mrs. Henry P. Wall, president. The following artists will take part: Mme. Blanche Arral, soprano; Rudolph Trosht, barytone; Mile. Lucille Collette, riolinist; Milan Troshe, planist; Paul Otto Goritz, barytone of the Metropol tan; Herma Menth, pianist; Mary Zen-tay, violinist, and the Tsingtau Orchestra will appear with Sousa's Band at the Hippodrome to-night for the benefit of the War Sufferers Relief Fund.

Samuel A. Baldwin will play the fol-"Papillons," a romantic poem in one scene based on the music of the same lowing programmes at his free organ recitals at the City College this week: Today at 4 o'clock: Sonata No. 1 in A minor, Borowski; A Prayer for Peace.

A concert of unusual interest musically and socially was given by the artist pupils of Mrs. Jessie Fenner-Hill of the Metropolitan Opera House Studios. It took place in the Bergen Lyceum in Jersey City, and a handsome sum was realized for the benefit of the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Children. The money is to be applied directly to the construction of fire escapes so that the little tots may move into their new and more commodious quarters. Those taking part were Mrs. MUSIC TEACHERS AND PUPILS into their new and more commodious quarters. Those taking part were Mme. Zayonchkowski, Isobel G. Klemyer, Julia Herman, Michael Zazulak and Robert J. Mills, assisted by Mile. Lucile Collette, violiniste, and Maurice Lafarge, pianist and accompanist. The local press reports were highly commendatory of the artistic rendition of the programme.

The selections will include his own composition, "Romance Sans Paroles."

Mme. Buckhout gave the fourteenth composer's musicale at her studio, 265 Central Park West corner of Eighty-seventh street, on Thursday evening. March 39. The entire programme, will give a piano recital than a selection will include his own composition, "Romance Sans Paroles."

Herman Kossoff, another member of the faculty of the Malkin Music School, will give a piano recital than a selection of the second composition. March 30. The entire programme was of the compositions of James P. Dunn.
The artists were James Galligher, barytone; John Ingram, violinist; William Morelander cellist, with the evening. Those taking part were Clark Evans, basso cantante; Mrs. Franklin L. Hutton, soprano; Miss Dorothy May-nard, soprano; Miss Hilda Kathryn

At the student recital given on March 24 at the New York College of Music, 128 and 130 East Fifty-eighth street, Moerlander, cellist, with the composer at the piano. Mme. Buckhout sang nine songs, including the "Bitterness of Love" and a new dramatic song, "Serenade," which Mr. Dunn has dedicated to her.

The artist pupils of the Helene Maigille American School of Bel Canto gave a song recital in the concert room of the Hofel Majestic, Seventy-second street and Central Park West, last Tuesday evening. Those taking part were Clark Evans, basso cantante: Mrs. Franklin three groups of lieder by Schubert, Brahms and Franz, followed by a numin three parts, with titles, The First Green Leaves, Brush From Thy Brow the Shadows Deep and And Though We Must Be Parted, Ellis Clark Ham-of Rubinstein, Dvorak's B minor con-

atic airs, "La Nenia," from "Mefistofele" of Bizet, and "Mi Pryer, who will return to England mand Mimi." from Puccinis "La Boeheme": a goup of French songs and three songs by Grieg, the "Ogni Sabato" of Gordigiani and "Nissun lo Sa" of Vaeracini: a group by MacDowell, Edwards, Kramer and Bing, and in closuring the "Se saran Rose" of Arditi. In the Pryer was a first page.

April 7. Craig Campan, and in the prescribed of th ber of French songs. Her concluding certo and shorter pieces by Bach, Becknumber is by her father, Max Heinrich, and is called "Love in Spring." It is the Punch and Judy Theatre on Thursday, Next Tuesday afternoon Julia Heinrich will give a song recital in Aeolian Hall. Her programme will consist of three groups of lieder by Schubert, Programme will include the D major sonata and three caprices by Paganini.

Max Gegna, violencellist, will give a dwski's Concesto No. 2 in D minor; his own introduction and scherzo, caprice. Hrahms, Chopin, Schumann and Liszt. April 7, in Aeolian Hall. His proton on a theme by Beethoven and three caprices by Paganini.

the Punch and Judy Theatre on Thursday, April 13, was born in Brooklyn in 1891.

"L'Orphelinat des Armees." Almee Vic-Mischa Elman's violin recital in Carnegie Hall on Saturday afternoon, April 13, was born in Brooklyn in 1891.

Solvent in Carnegie Hall on Saturday afternoon, April 13, was born in Brooklyn in 1891.

Following a bent for music he studied all its branches during his school years, including the arts of voice and violin.

Graduating from Harvard in 1913 he includes Handel's D major sonata and Graduating from Harvard in 1913 he includes Handel's D major sonata and songs including the arts of voice and violin.

Graduating from Harvard in 1913 he gare in science gan, planist, will play the Grieg concerto. mann.

Inis city for this season. His programme including the arts of voice and violin. Includes Handel's D major sonata and Bach's sonata in G minor, Bruch's D minor concerto and a group of smaller liles of the Italian reservists, under the season and a group of smaller pieces comprising a nocturne by Chopin
The latter enabled him to study in Eu
Sassenet, Sand-Saels, Chaminage, Graduating from Harvard in 1913 he Thayer. Brewer and Ray. Marie Hourisands, will play the Grieg concerto and the Naumburg Fellowship in Music.

The latter enabled him to study in Eu-

FELLOW MEN (AND WOMEN)...Drawn by Orson Lowell Vauried Activities at the Popular Resorts

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., April 1.—Lady Williams-Taylor of Montreal has come here from Havana, where she went from Palm Beach, and is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Brenda Williams-Taylor, who has been doing hospital work in France. They were interested listeners at the lecture given by Miss Manby, formerly of Montreal, upon her work among the wounded French soldiers in France, and a large collection for the benefit of the French War Relief Society, under whose auspices the talk was given, was taken afterward. Miss Anne Morgan, who is an officer of the society, was among the audience, with Miss Maude Wetmore and Miss Elsie de Wolfe.

S. P. Breck Trowbridge has arrived from New York, and others to register are Mrs. G. F. Drew, Miss Ettinger, Mr. and Mrs. E. Paats de Frers, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence was raised last Saturday even Hofmann cottage, occupied Ames, where all the members of Ames, where all the members of Philadelphia.

Arrivals here from Long Island are
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Maxwell. Miss Abernethy, E. L. Maxwell and Master J. H. Maxwell of Glen Cove, who will gave one of the largest dist week in compliment to Counts remain during the Easter season.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crawford Clark,

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crawford Clark,

John Sloan and Eliot Cross have reWillcox's this week for Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crawford Clark,
John Sloan and Ellot Cross have returned to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Alexander, who are here for the season, are accompanied by Miss Helen Yulle of Montreal, Canada.

Mrs. F. R. Babcock and Mrs. Henry
Roberts will arrive here from Hot Springs, Va., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Loring, Jr.,
Mrs. John A. Logan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs.
Charles F. Hoffman, Col. Thomas Denney and Horage E. Andrews are among golfers playing daily.

Mrs. David Stevenson of New York, who is taking the cure, is accompanied by her sister, Miss Latrobe of Baltimore. Mrs. A. B. Fenno and G. E.
Turnure are here for the season, and others of the latest arrivals are Mrs.
J. A. Tweedy, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando A.
Dana and B. Y. Field of New York,
Mrs. Richard Cochrane of the Hotel
Berkeley has left for Atlantic City, N. J.
Enjoying golf here have been J. H.
Smith, J. Lawrence and R. S. Darling of New York.

LAKEWOOD.

rope, largely under Dr. Walter Courvoiser in Munich. He was abroad for two years, and during his stay there wrote the libretto and the score of his grand opera, "The Sunken City." His wordless fantasy, "The Romaunt of the Rose," has been produced in this country twice.

Although his chief interest is in orchestral work, with particular emphasis on opera, he has also written many songs, which will be largely represented on his programme at his coming recital here. In addition to them he will play one of his newest works, a plano transcription of a suite for orchestra entitled Florentine Sketches.

John McCormack, tenor, will give his eighth New York recital next Sunday evening, April 9, at Carnegie Hall. The programme will include "Il mio Tesoro," from Mozart's "Don Glovanni," "When Night Descends" of Rachmannov, a number of "request" selections, and Bizet's "Agnus Del," the latter being sung with piano, violin and organ accompaniment.

HAKEWOOD, N. J., April 1—One of the leading features this week in the social life of the resort was the annual enterphasic of the leading features this week in the social life of the resort was the annual enterphasic of the leading features this week in the social life of the resort was the annual enterphasic life of the resort was a sweets shop in the corridor. The subject of the solution of the part of the flowed b LAKEWOOD, N. J., April 1 -- One of the minor, the F-sharp minor Polonaise, the waltzes in A minor and G-flat major, the Scherzo in C-sharp minor and the nocturnes in C-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and the nocturnes in C-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and the nocturnes in C-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and the nocturnes in C-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and the nocturnes in C-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and the nocturnes in C-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and the nocturnes in C-sharp minor and F-sharp minor and OLD POINT, Va., April 1.—Following the theatricals on Wednesday evening given by an all star cast of officers and ladies of Fortress Monroe Col. Irad Haynes, U. S. A., commandant of the post, and Mrs. Haynes, John D. Crimmins of New York, who is taking the cure, and Major G. A. Nugent, U. S. A., and Mrs. Nugent were among those entertaining supper parties.

Mrs. R. W. Forbes gave a bridge tead in the palm garden of the Chamberlin on Wednesday afternoon with fifteen tables playing.

Major and Mrs. Harmon P. Read. who carried in some years to we been spending several weeks at Chamberlin, were joined this week to ascertain the outlook Miss Marie de Carron.

Samuel B. Browne arrived from New ning of the business se York in the early part of the week to join Mrs. Browne and Miss M. Vanderpoel.

Arrivals from New York this week include Mrs. Clarence M. Hyde, Mrs. E. Ellery Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Rafael R. Govin, Miss May Govin, Rafael R. Govin, Jr., Edward de Lima and Mrs. A. H. Strong.

VIRGINIA HOT SPRINGS.

Hor Springs, Va., April 1 .- Mr. and Mrs. Horace Havemeyer arrived New York some days ago with Miss Mildred Eddy and Stephen Birch and have taken Ingaliscote for the rest of George B. Blagden, who is here from Benjamin Brewster and James Eckert.

Ward, J. W. Wallace, J. W. Wallace Jr., Ralph Wallace and Miss Josephine Wallace of New York.

tors are arriving in Asheville, the weather has been superb and it is ex-

was raised last Saturday ever Hofmann cottage, occupied Ames, where all the members and Mrs. E. Paats de Frets, Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock, Miss Ames, who came with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Clark; Mr. and Mrs. Ames, where all the members of tage colony assembled to plan action and bridge tournamed action and bridge tournamed graces. George B. Perry and Mrs. Prederick Bode, Mr. and Mrs. T Richard Denzer, George B. Perry and Charles A. Theriot.

James R. McKee of New York, who is a pedestrian of great attainments, is exploring all the Alleghany trails in the vicinity, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Cartier of New York have sent down their automobile that they may tour among the hills.

Mrs. John Wanamaker arrived on Wednesday and was accompanied by her daughter. Mrs. Norman McLeod, Mr. McLeod and Mrs. John G. Clark of Philadelphia.

Arrivals here from Long Island are

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mur Every one attended the a given by at the Palmetto Golf afternoon by the officers and governors of the club. As a Celestine Eustis, who has al-sided at these affairs, noured

HIBERNATING STEAMBOATS.

OVER at Fort Lee or side of the Huds dozen steamboats the Coney Island and Ro vice of the Iron Steambo are tied to a dock in a awaiting the call of summ When you stand near then at night, you can't help

groundhog, and the compan to ascertain the outlook f the steamers have not be he groundhog, for the weather or patronage warra

There are scores of steam nating every winter in the wa rounding Greater New York means an expenditure of sun aging annually over $100

BROOKLYN ADVERTISEMENTS.

130 Weber 35 E. Gabler 140 Sterling 140 Bradbury 50 Arion 65 Hazelton Bros. 75 H. Waters 90 Sohmer & Co.

180 Wheelock 250 Steinway & Son 6 GOETZ & CO. 81-87 COURT ST

ASHEVILLE ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 1 .- Many visi Hotel and their friends, are under way, EVENING BROOKLYN

Evans, basso cantante; Mrs. Franklin
L Hutton, soprano; Miss Dorothy Mayard, soprano; Miss eliilda Kathryn Schultz, contralto. In the absence of Miss Corinne Schwartz, messo-contralto,
Mr. Dodd sang an extra number, Hastings's "Red, Red Rose." Miss Louise Liebannan played the accompaniments.

The way high quality of this cencert

LOOKING AROUND IN MONG other claims to distinc. from the Dutch days down to 1825? der of Col. Swope, Hyde was con- eighteenth century. A passage from a Hindoo tale in one act with music by Reynaldo Hahn; "Le Spectre de la Rose," a romantic tableau based on a poem by Theophile Gau day at 4 octock; Sonaia No. 1 in A minor. Borowski; A Prayer for Peace, Held; Prelude and Fugue in D major, Bach; Idyl No. 1, Gray; Menuet in D. Mozar; Grand Chœur Dialogue, Gigout; Theophile Gau Nassau street, in which a history recording tablet was of by hogs, which were permitted to roam at will for that purpose. It was estimated that in 1820 thirty thousand Occasional plays had been produced in work-for their board.

> 26, 1750, announced the arrival in the White Wings in those days. previous week of "a company of hear have taken a convenient room for their purpose in one of the buildings lately belonging to the Hon. Rip Van Dam, deceased, in Nassau street. where they intend to perform as long as the season lasts, provided they meet with suitable encouragement."

This advertisement appeared in the ame paper on March 5: Wrote originally by Shakespeare and altered by Colley Cibber, Esq. Tickets to be had of the Printer hereof. Pitt.

scenes. Many of the streets of New York have been in a fithy condition for many months and complaints of the Federal Industrial Commission, was the can cut their hair." work of the Street Cleaning Depart-ment, whether rightly directed or not, have been frequent and insistent. But peared as special prosecutor. how many residents would be willing to return to conditions which obtained tory recording tablet was of by hogs, which were permitted to reversed the verdict and remanded the of which definite information remains. of these animals were performing this

Despite visitations of yellow fever and other diseases it was not until 1828 that the Common Council directed that carts should be used to remove garbage and that the swine should be sent to the public pound. Men and boys, according to Stephen Jenkins, offered such resistance to the attempt to catch the hogs that the ordinance was a dead letter for several years. There was no thought of

There are many points of similarity between the case of the dentist Dr. Arthur Warren Waite and that of Dr. Bennett Clark Hyde, the Kansas City physician, accused of the murder October 8, 1910, of his wife's uncle. Col. Thomas H. Swope, a wealthy philanthropist. In indictments Dr. "By his Excellency's permission, at ing" Col. Moss Hunton "by bleeding

Yet other indictments charged the to be had of the Printer hereof. Pitt. poisoning with typhoid germs of Lucy 5s. Gallery 3s. To begin precisely at Lee Swope, Sarah Swope and Stella Half an Hour after 6 o'clock, and no person to be admitted behind the family, and a negro servant. Frank P. States Senator James A. Reed ap- trade or profession in England.

At the first trial for the alleged mur- worked as barbers as far tack as the votes in a Congress election!

disagreed, and in the course of the third hearing one of the jurors became And three gold rings her skilful hands and gay, but nobody seems to know when or why April 1 was set apart that the first April fool sent on a thankless errand was the dove which Noah released to discover, if possible dry land. This event occurred on the first day of the Hebrew month corresponding with April, and it is said that Noah made the dove about as tired as later victims of the day have declared themselves to the corresponding with April, and it is said that toria objected to the wearing of beards by her soldiers, but later she encouraged her officers to wear mustaches. Indeed, the following army regulation of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. M. clared themselves to be.

philanthropist. In indictments Dr. Hyde was held responsible also for the death of Chrisman Swope, another relative by marriage, and was accused sent from Annas to Caiaphas, from Mr. Caiaphas to Pilate, from Pilate to Herod and from Herod back to Pilate.

They do some things very slowly in Fived from New York this week and England. Early last month a by-electric at take the White Cottage through the fived from New York this week and England. Early last month a by-electric at the Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram G. Work arrived from New York this week and England. Early last month a by-electric at the Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram G. Work arrived from New York this week and England. Early last month a by-electric at the Homestead.

English women, as a matter of fact.

tion which may be made by During that period refuse was thrown victed and sentenced to life imprison- John Gay's "Journey to Exeter" de-Nassau street, in which a his- into the streets, where it was disposed ment. The Missouri Supreme Court scribes a visit to a barber's shop thus: A female enters and performs the part placed a few days ago, is that it had roam at will for that purpose. It was case for rehearing. The second jury the weighty golden chain adorns her

Smooth o'er our chin her easy fingers There are many theories, both grave Soft as when Venus stroked the beard was issued: "The hair of the head will be kept short. The chin and under lip will be shaved, but not the up-In all seriousness, the custom is considered by many to be an odd way of keeping in memory the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart specific property of the custom is expected daily. She will occupy it through the of keeping in memory the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of his accusers when he was bearance.

And women barbers have not been unknown in the Bowery. During the Crimean war Queen Vic-

Indicate the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of entirely at maintaining a smart aport of the mockery of the mock tion was held in East Hertfordshire, at which an aviator was chosen for a seat and others who have arrived within the the Theatre in Nassau street. This him to death." Col. Hunton was to have been one of the executors of dence in more than one European tracted wide attention and it is to be Ward, J. Raiph The barber has been much in evi- in Parliament. The campaign had at- last few days have been Mrs. Benjamin country since the start of the present assumed that eagerness to learn the war. French soldiers, according to a result was general. On the day followreport several months ago, were or- ing the election the London papers redered to sacrifice their whiskers be- ported that "polling concluded at 9 lwope, sisters of the Mrs. Hyde; Mil- cause of the danger of disease germs o'clock last night and the supporters in trench fighting. An English barber worked hard until the last minute." dred Fex, a visitor to the Swope home; in trench fighting. An English barber worked hard until the last minute."

Georgie Compton and Dora Belle Dick- who pleaded for exemption recently Then followed nearly half a column's on, seamstresses employed by the on the ground that his services were recital of incidents at the polls, but pected that the spreamily, and a negro servant. Frank P. needed at home was told that "men not a word of speculation as to the re-the longest in years. Walsh, more recently chairman of the can shave themselves and their wives sult. The reports concluded: "Countand their wives suit. The reports concluded: "Count-Preparations for an Easter ball, to be Indeed, many ing will begin at 9:45 A. M. to-day and given for the guests of the Battery Park physician's chief counsel, and United women are now said to be entering the the result will probably be declared at the Hertford town hall soon after 11 o'clock." Think of waiting thirteen hours before beginning to count the believe in a Congress election:

Hote and ther releasing social event of the season. A thousand invitations will be issued, and coming as it does at the spring golf tournament at the Country Club it will mean much for the man by an appointment of the property of the property of the property of the second of